

PRESS RELEASE

February 29, 2016

SUBJECT: Arrest – Vehicle Theft

CASE NUMBER: 1601685

DATE OCCURRED: February 28, 2016

TIME OCCURRED: 2:46 am

POINT OF CONTACT: Lieutenant Tim Mahon

On Sunday, February 28, 2016, at approximately 2:46 am, an alert San Bruno resident noticed three subjects looking into vehicles on the 500 block of Elm Avenue. San Bruno Police Officers responded to the scene to search for the subjects. Several blocks away, an officer located three subjects rummaging through a vehicle parked at the City Pool parking lot. All three subjects were determined to be juveniles

A subsequent investigation revealed that the vehicle that the juveniles had been rummaging through had been stolen from the 400 block of Elm Avenue. Officers located additional vehicles in the vicinity that had been tampered with as well.

All three juveniles were arrested for motor vehicle theft as well as other theft related offenses.

Reminder: Alert neighbors provide the greatest assistance to your police department with the apprehension of criminals!
